

An Asperger Marriage: A Couple's Journey Through Intimacy, Challenges, and Triumph

An Asperger Marriage is a memoir by Alexander Smalls, a chef and restaurateur, and his wife, Kelly. The book chronicles their journey through intimacy, challenges, and triumph as they navigate the unique challenges of marriage while living with Asperger's Syndrome.

Asperger's Syndrome is a neurodevelopmental disorder that can affect social interaction and communication. It can also lead to repetitive behaviors and a narrow range of interests. In An Asperger Marriage, Alexander and Kelly share their experiences with honesty, humor, and compassion. They offer insights into the challenges of living with Asperger's

Syndrome, and they provide hope for other couples who are facing similar challenges.
