Synopsis

In Bad Bella, Stick Dog and his friends are enjoying a day at the beach when they see a poodle being chased by a group of penguins. Stick Dog and his friends rush to the poodle's aid, but they are too late. The penguins kidnap the poodle and take her away to their island.

Stick Dog and his friends are determined to rescue the poodle, but they know that it will be a dangerous mission. The penguins are known for their ruthlessness, and they will stop at nothing to protect their captive.

Stick Dog and his friends set out on their mission, but they soon find themselves in over their heads. The penguins are more powerful than they thought, and they have a number of tricks up their sleeves.

But Stick Dog and his friends are not about to give up. They are determined to rescue the poodle, and they will stop at nothing to achieve their goal. With their courage and their friendship, they overcome all obstacles and bring Bella back to her owner.
