Get ready for a heartwarming adventure with Biscuit, the beloved golden retriever puppy, as he embarks on a special mission to find a friend.

In this charming story, Biscuit finds himself feeling a little lonely. He sees other dogs playing together and wishes he had someone to share his toys and laughter with. Determined to find a friend, Biscuit sets out on an exploration around the neighborhood.

Along the way, Biscuit meets an array of interesting characters, including cats, squirrels, and children. Each encounter brings a new lesson and helps shape Biscuit's understanding of friendship.

One sunny afternoon, as Biscuit strolls through the park, he notices two children sitting by themselves. They look sad, so Biscuit cautiously approaches them. The children, named Lily and Ethan, are new to the neighborhood and haven't made any friends yet.

Biscuit's wagging tail and friendly eyes instantly cheer up Lily and Ethan. They play fetch, explore the park, and discover a shared love for adventure. As the sun begins to set, Biscuit realizes that he has found the perfect friends.

Biscuit Finds a Friend is a delightful and heartwarming story that celebrates the importance of friendship, acceptance, and kindness. This engaging book is perfect for beginning readers, with simple language and charming illustrations that bring the story to life.
