About the Book

Fijian At Heart is a memoir by Australian author and journalist, Maree Crabbe. The book tells the story of her journey to Fiji in 2006, where she met and fell in love with a local man named Mosese. Together, they built a life on the Coral Coast, raising a family and running a successful business.

However, in 2012, Mosese was tragically killed in a car accident. Maree was left heartbroken and alone in a foreign country. But instead of giving up, she decided to stay in Fiji and continue the life they had built together.

Fijian At Heart is a story of love, loss, and hope. It is a testament to the power of the human spirit and the resilience of the Fijian people. It is also a love letter to Fiji, a country that Maree has come to call home.
