

Uni the Unicorn: Uni's First Sleepover - A Magical Adventure for Young Readers

Uni the Unicorn is excited for her first sleepover! She's going to spend the night at her friend Lily's house, and she can't wait to have a sleepover party. But Uni has never been to a sleepover before, so she's not sure what to expect. Will there be games? Will there be snacks? Will there be stories?

Uni arrives at Lily's house and is greeted with a warm hug. Lily and her mom have set up a special sleepover spot in the living room, complete with a tent, sleeping bags, and pillows. Uni is so excited, she can hardly contain herself. She and Lily put on their pajamas and crawl into the tent. They start by playing a game of cards, and then they read a story together. Uni is having so much fun, she almost forgets that she's away from home.
