Synopsis

In the wake of a devastating disease that has ravaged the world, children and teenagers who exhibit extraordinary abilities are deemed "dangerous" and ruthlessly hunted down by the government. Among these extraordinary individuals are Ruby Daly and Liam Stewart.

Ruby possesses a formidable telekinetic power, and Liam has the ability to manipulate electricity. Together with a small group of fellow escapees, they form the Children of Eden, a resistance movement dedicated to fighting for their freedom and uncovering the truth behind their abilities. As they navigate a treacherous world filled with danger, fear, and relentless pursuit, they discover the power of unity, resilience, and the unbreakable bonds of family.
